

Compliance and Professional Development in a Post-Covid World

Presented By:

Amy Matey

Director of Legal Operations
O'Toole Scrivo, LLC

Timothy P. Glynn

Senior Associate Dean
and Andrea J. Catania Endowed Professor of Law
Seton Hall University School of Law

Drawing on their experiences in compliance education and development for lawyers and business leaders, our distinguished presenters will share best practices, insights on current trends, and the global impact of Covid on regulations and governance.

Collecting their conversations from compliance leaders worldwide, the speakers will share observations on market trends and how changing work environments will transform the role of compliance officers.

Don't miss this time-sensitive look at what's happening now and what to look for from these well-known compliance educators.

REGISTER NOW

VIEW THE AGENDA

Register now for a full day of workshops and discussions at the Virtual Mini Sharing Conference for $399 per person, open to all commercial compliance and operations professionals throughout the pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device industries, as well as consultants and sales/solutions providers who support them. If you are already registered, thank you for being part of our one-day Mini Sharing Conference! If you are not yet registered, plan to join us next month by registering today.

Thank you to our Mini Sharing Conference Sponsors!

PharmaVOICE

Knipper

R&S Empowering
Healthcare Success

Contact Us
View Online
Unsubscribe

The Sharing Alliance
sharingalliance.org
400 Columbus Ave, Suite 120S
Valhalla, NY 10595