How the Pandemic Changed Workplace Best Practices

Presented by Dave Mitchell
The Leadership Difference

Isolation.
Working from home.
Virtual meetings.

We are all aware that these, and a myriad of other factors, have forever re-shaped and re-prioritized the best practices of creating a peak performance environment.

This timely workshop will focus on critical components to the success of the workplace in a post-pandemic world.

Attendees will learn about the importance of informal communication in a virtual work environment, how to better resolve conflict with fewer face-to-face interactions, and how to recognize, respond, and mitigate the influence of stress in the workplace of the future.

In addition to this workshop, The Sharing Alliance is proud to have Dave Mitchell as our Keynote Speaker for this year's Sharing Conference. Get info about his keynote address here.
