Calling all Alliance Members!

Before the long weekend and unofficial start to the summer begins, here are just a few things to keep in mind ...

Last call to be heard - Sharing Conference Survey

Our conference survey will be closing at the end of the month, so if you haven't already shared your thoughts, please answer our quick questions now. The Alliance Board wants to hear from YOU!

Take survey here

Sharing Alliance Participation Certificates

Personalized 2023 Sharing Conference Participation Certificates are only available for a short time. If you still want to request one, let us know soon.

If you are interested in receiving 14.4 CCB CEU credits for participating in the Sharing Conference earlier this month, email us for the necessary documentation and details on how to apply.

The Sharing Alliance Board wishes all our Alliance Members, and their family and friends, a very happy Memorial Day weekend – may we never forget those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom!

Seb & Segura

Deb Segura
Alliance Executive Director

The content of this email does not represent an official policy of the Sharing Alliance™ or any company(s) where our members are employed. It is provided as educational information of general interest and should not be construed as legal advice. Members are reminded to contact their own internal or external counsel for legal advice.

