

We are proud to announce the Keynote Speaker for the 32nd Annual Sharing Conference Kevin Hines

Kevin Hines is an award-winning filmmaker, bestselling author, acclaimed educator and speaker, and distinguished mental health activist. For over twenty years, Kevin has staunchly advocated for suicide prevention and the importance of mental wellness, drawing wisdom from his lived experience.

At seventeen years old, Kevin was diagnosed with bipolar disorder. Two years later, he attempted to take his own life by jumping off of the Golden Gate Bridge. Kevin became one of the thirty-six people to survive the fall, and the only survivor to regain full mobility. Since his miraculous survival, he has become a world-renowned activist who has dedicated his life to advocating for mental health.

Kevin's keynote address will highlight the strength of the human spirit, and remind attendees of their own capacity for tenacity and resilience. He will emphasize the value of every member of a community, as well as the importance of supporting one another within our communities. Attendees will learn the skills and characteristics required to be a better advocate for themselves and others in all aspects of life. We are confident that Kevin's story will move, motivate, and inspire you as it has for thousands across the world.
